

Please include your BG- or customer number and a current telephone number with any contacts, letters and documents submitted so that we can contact you if we have any further questions.

Together against the corona-virus We are still there for you!

From March 18, 2020 we will close all all three departments of the Jobcenter Herne for public entrance!

We are still available for you in writing, by telephone, online or by email.

For financial emergencies, please contact our hotlines in advance. Any emergencies with direct cash payment are processed in the department at Koniner Straße 4, 44625 Herne.

Documents can be submitted by post, digitally or directly via the letter boxes in the departments. In addition, many concerns can be settled online safely and conveniently from home. This precaution is designed to protect customers and employees alike.
